1. VIENNA CITY TOUR AND SCHÖNBRUNN PALACE

See the most important sights of Vienna: the Hofburg Palace (the former winter residence of the Hapsburg family), the Ringstraße with its magnificent and impressive buildings such as the State Opera House, national museums, Parliament, the Burgtheater, the University and the Votivkirche; as well as the Karlskirche (Vienna's most beautiful baroque church) and the Musikverein, home of the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. The highlight of the tour will be an interior visit of the famous Schönbrunn Palace with its lavishly decorated rooms that demonstrate the glamor of past times. Schönbrunn is simply a must-see.

Schönbrunn Palace

2. WALKING TOUR INCLUDING HOMES OF MOZART AND BEETHOVEN, AND ST. STEPHEN'S CATHEDRAL

We take you on a stroll through the atmospheric old city, seeing selected points of interest. You will discover some of the delightful features of Vienna and visit parts of the city only a true Viennese can point out.

One of the many special highlights is St. Stephen's Cathedral, the finest Gothic structure in Austria. It boasts a high Gothic choir and a late Gothic nave with a steeply pitched roof and decorative glazed tiles. The regularly tapering south tower, popularly known as "Steffl", is Vienna's principal landmark. Major state services are held here, and Mozart's funeral took place here.

Home of Beethoven

St. Stephen's Cathedral

Mozarthaus Vienna : Though Mozart lived at a dozen different addresses in Vienna, the only apartment that has survived to this day is at Domgasse No. 5. The composer lived at this address from 1784 till 1787. Occupying 1,000 square meters on six levels, the Mozarthaus was opened on January 27, 2006 – the 250th anniversary of Mozart's birth. Visitors are immersed in the vibrant world of Mozart, experiencing his bountiful genius and creativity, his family, and his friends and foes in Vienna of the late baroque. His apartment on the first floor had four large rooms, two small ones and a kitchen. Throughout his life, Mozart attached great importance to outward appearances: only smart clothes and buckled shoes would suit him.

3. SALZBURG CITY TOUR

We take you on a stroll through the old city, seeing selected points of interest. Accompanied by your guides, you will discover the most important sights of Salzburg. The Mirabell Palace, built by Archbishop Wolf Dietrich for his beloved Salome Alt in 1606, now seat of the mayor of Salzburg with the beautiful “Marmorsaal” (marble hall) and the location of weddings and numerous concerts.

Other highlights will be the Landestheater, the Mozarteum and, naturally, Mozart’s House (where the Mozart family lived). By crossing the bridge over the river Salzach, we enter the old part of the city. Walking through the Getreidegasse, the famous traditional shopping mall, we reach Mozart’s birthplace. After a visit to the museum, we proceed to the Cathedral, an imposing early baroque church, and then over Residenz Square, where we learn about the former residence of the Archbishops, nowadays open to the public as a gallery. Afterwards, our guides leave you in the city where you have time to enjoy the great shopping opportunities Salzburg offers or to relax in one of the famous cafes.

4. *OPTIONAL MOZART’S BIRTHPLACE, SALZBURG

This bus tour will take you to see Mozart’s birth house. Salzburg’s most famous son came into this world on 27 January 1756. His family actually lived here for 26 years, from 1747 on, occupying an apartment on the third floor. With parents Leopold and Anna Maria as well as sister “Nannerl”, Mozart spent his childhood and much of his youth there. In 1773, the family moved to the house we know today as the “Mozart Residence”, standing on Makartplatz Square.

Austria Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1

How are ensembles selected for and invited to participate in this concert series?

Each ensemble has been specifically recommended or referred to us by music directors in the profession, or by one of the more than 850 guest conductors who have appeared on our series since 1984.

2

For choral concerts, is it required that music be prepared prior to arrival?

Yes. Choruses or chorus members who are not thoroughly prepared will not be allowed to rehearse or perform in the concert.

3

When will we know the schedule for our residency?

Schedules (and rehearsal locations) are published 60-90 days in advance of your arrival. Please refer to the general residency schedule contained in this document for approximate rehearsal and tour times.

4

When can we purchase air tickets and other reservations?

It is essential and critical that all groups wait until they receive written confirmation and a “go-ahead” from Joyce Howard-Brazel, Chief of Client Services, before making any flight arrangements. This will occur after registrations have been received and the concert is confirmed.

5

What size audience can we expect at our concert?

Audiences are large and enthusiastic. MidAm International has a comprehensive public relations and audience development division that typically sees the vast majority of our international concerts sold out by concert time.

6

How are the concerts promoted and advertised?

Concerts are promoted extensively through local press and social media, along with hundreds of public and private business sources in each European location. This coverage, as well as efforts for press coverage in ensembles' home locations are led by Andrea Niederman, our Director of Public Relations, Publications, and Audience Development and her team.
