Tour Description: Stockholm Old Town and Vasa Museum

Stockholm is widely acknowledged as one of the world's most beautiful cities and is often called the Venice of Scandinavia. Dramatically situated at a point where the cobalt blue Lake Mälaren meets and clashes with the darker hue of the Baltic Sea, the city has been splendidly endowed by nature. Stockholm is built up on 14 islands. No fewer than 57 bridges connect the islands with each other. We board our coach and drive through Stockholm. Afterwards we will take a drive to the Old Town. Your guide will take you for a walk through the Old Town showing you the highlights of this wonderful part of Stockholm. Maybe time for some own time before the drive continues by the Parliament building, the National Museum, the Royal Dramatic Theatre and along the quayside boulevard Strandvägen. Then make your way to Djurgården where you will visit the Vasa battleship that sunk on its maiden voyage. Your guide will tell you about the ship, then the group will have free time to walk around the different exhibitions and see the short film (approx 20 minutes) to give you the in depth information. You will be guided through the huge glass-domed Blue Hall where the Nobel Prize banquets are held and the Golden Hall, covered with striking mosaics. After, drive to Riddarholmen where you get another magnificent view of the City Hall with its 3 crowns. Time for a photo. Hear about Riddarholm Church where many Sovereigns of Sweden are buried. Finish the tour with one of the best ways to see Stockholm which is by boat. You get an entirely different perspective of this city and see exactly how much water surrounds it. Return to your hotel and be on your own the rest of the evening. Please note: It is recommended to wear flat comfortable shoes due to going on a boat.
